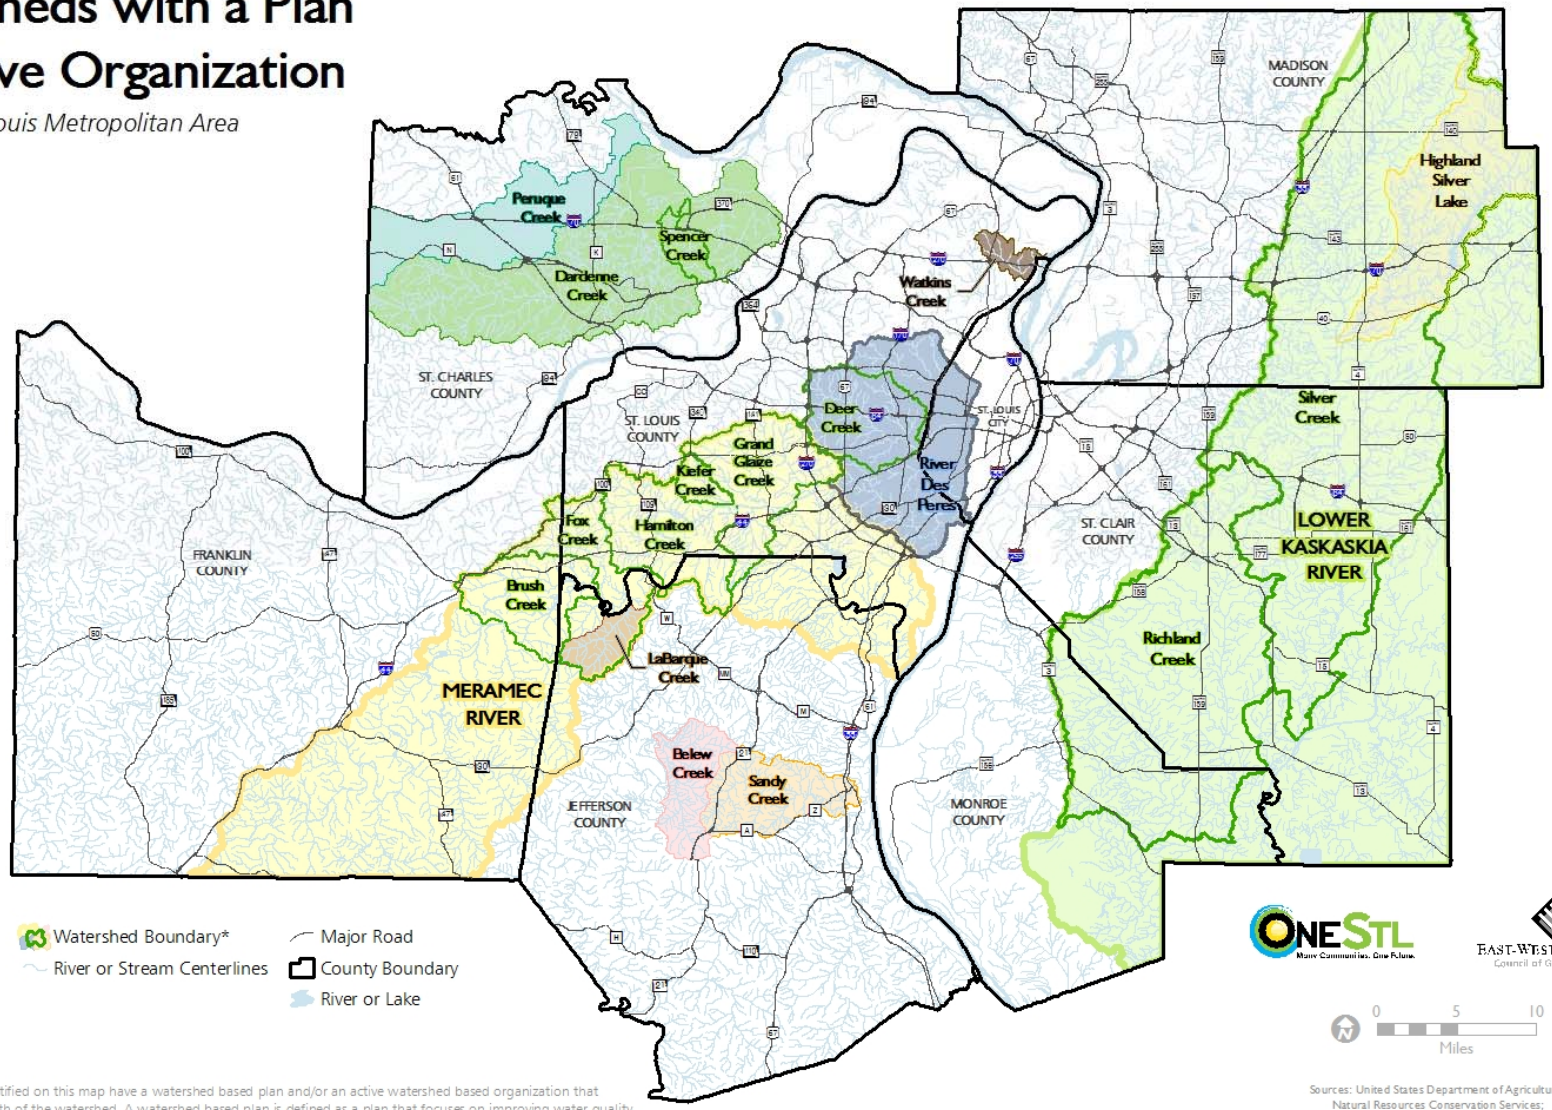
Watersheds with a Plan or Active Organization

St. Louis Metropolitan Area



Watershed Boundary*
River or Stream Centerlines
Major Road
County Boundary
River or Lake

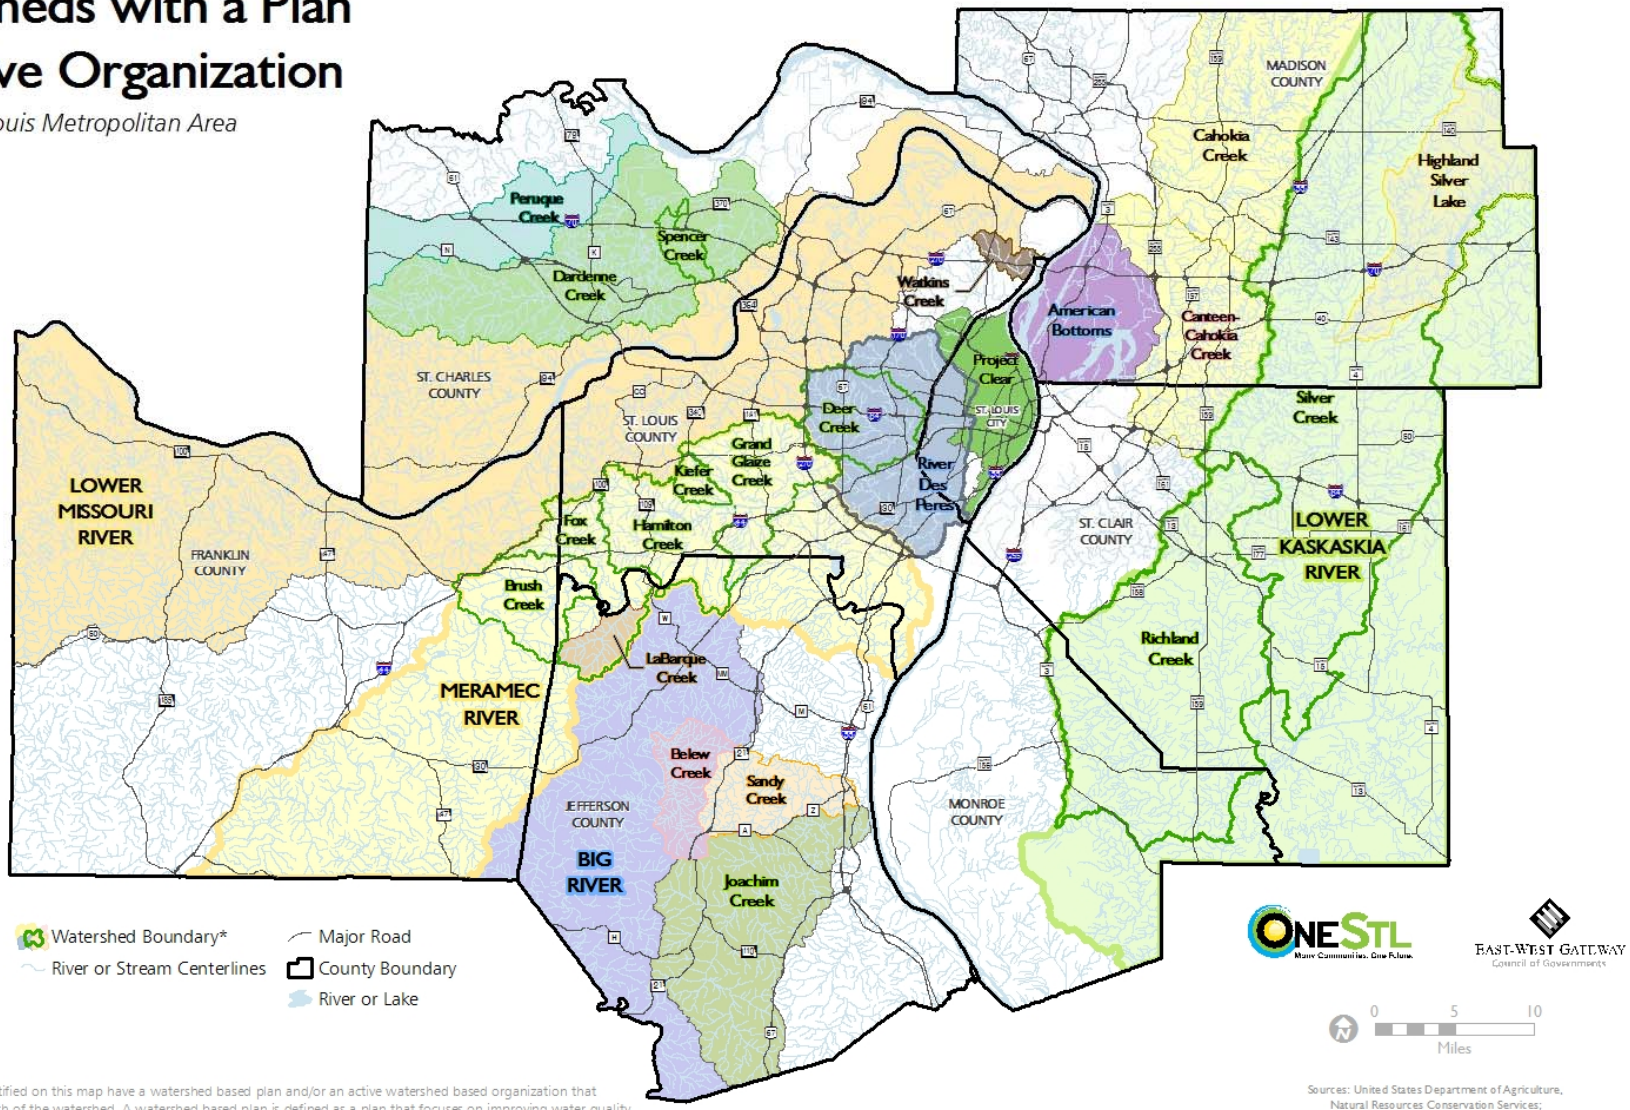
0 5 10
Miles

* Watersheds identified on this map have a watershed based plan and/or an active watershed based organization that promotes the health of the watershed. A watershed based plan is defined as a plan that focuses on improving water quality within a watershed. Some watersheds have more than one plan or organization operating at different watershed scales. Some of the identified watersheds extend beyond the eight county St. Louis region displayed on the map.

Sources: United States Department of Agriculture, Natural Resources Conservation Services; East-West Gateway Council of Governments
January 2017

Watersheds with a Plan or Active Organization

St. Louis Metropolitan Area

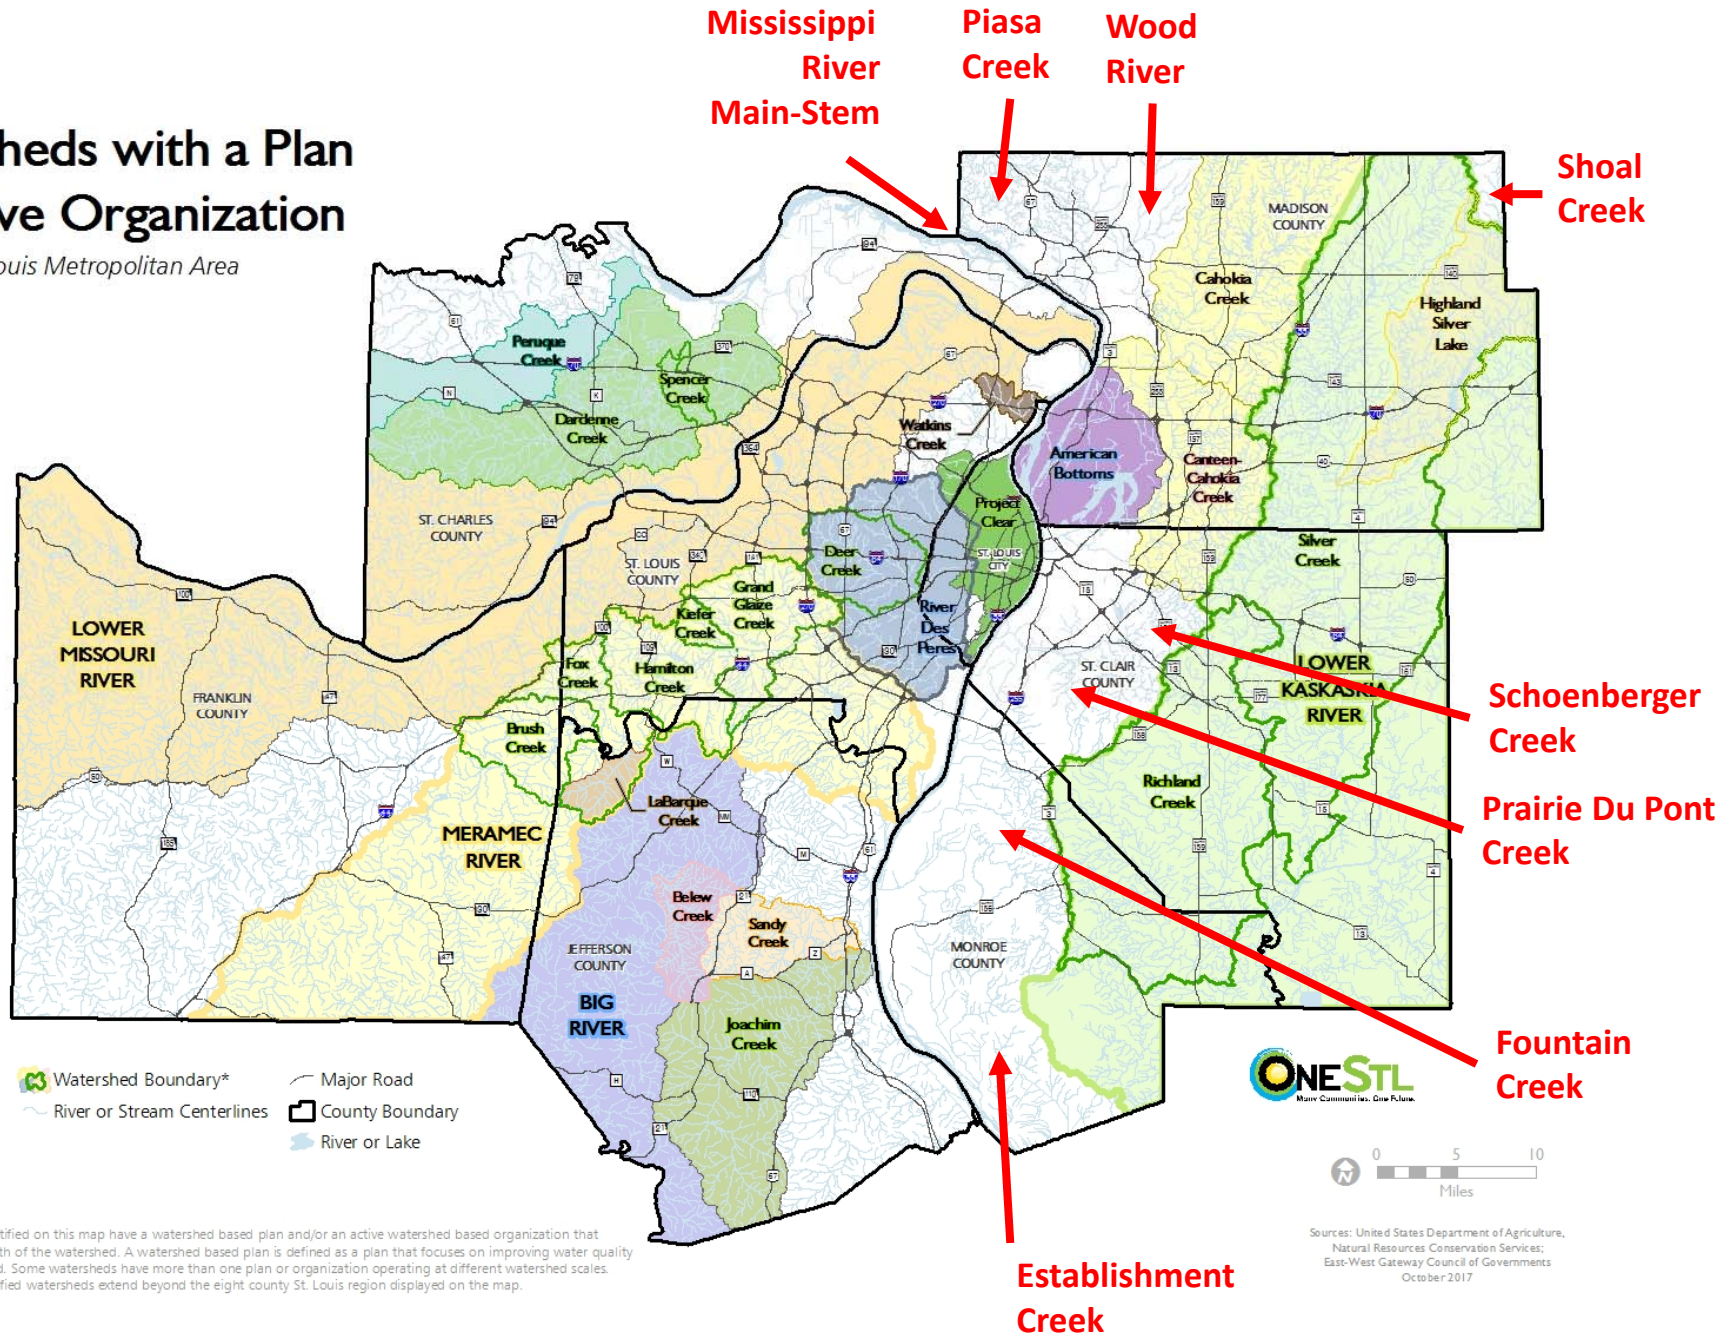


* Watersheds identified on this map have a watershed based plan and/or an active watershed based organization that promotes the health of the watershed. A watershed based plan is defined as a plan that focuses on improving water quality within a watershed. Some watersheds have more than one plan or organization operating at different watershed scales. Some of the identified watersheds extend beyond the eight county St. Louis region displayed on the map.

Sources: United States Department of Agriculture, Natural Resources Conservation Services; East-West Gateway Council of Governments
October 2017

Watersheds with a Plan or Active Organization

St. Louis Metropolitan Area

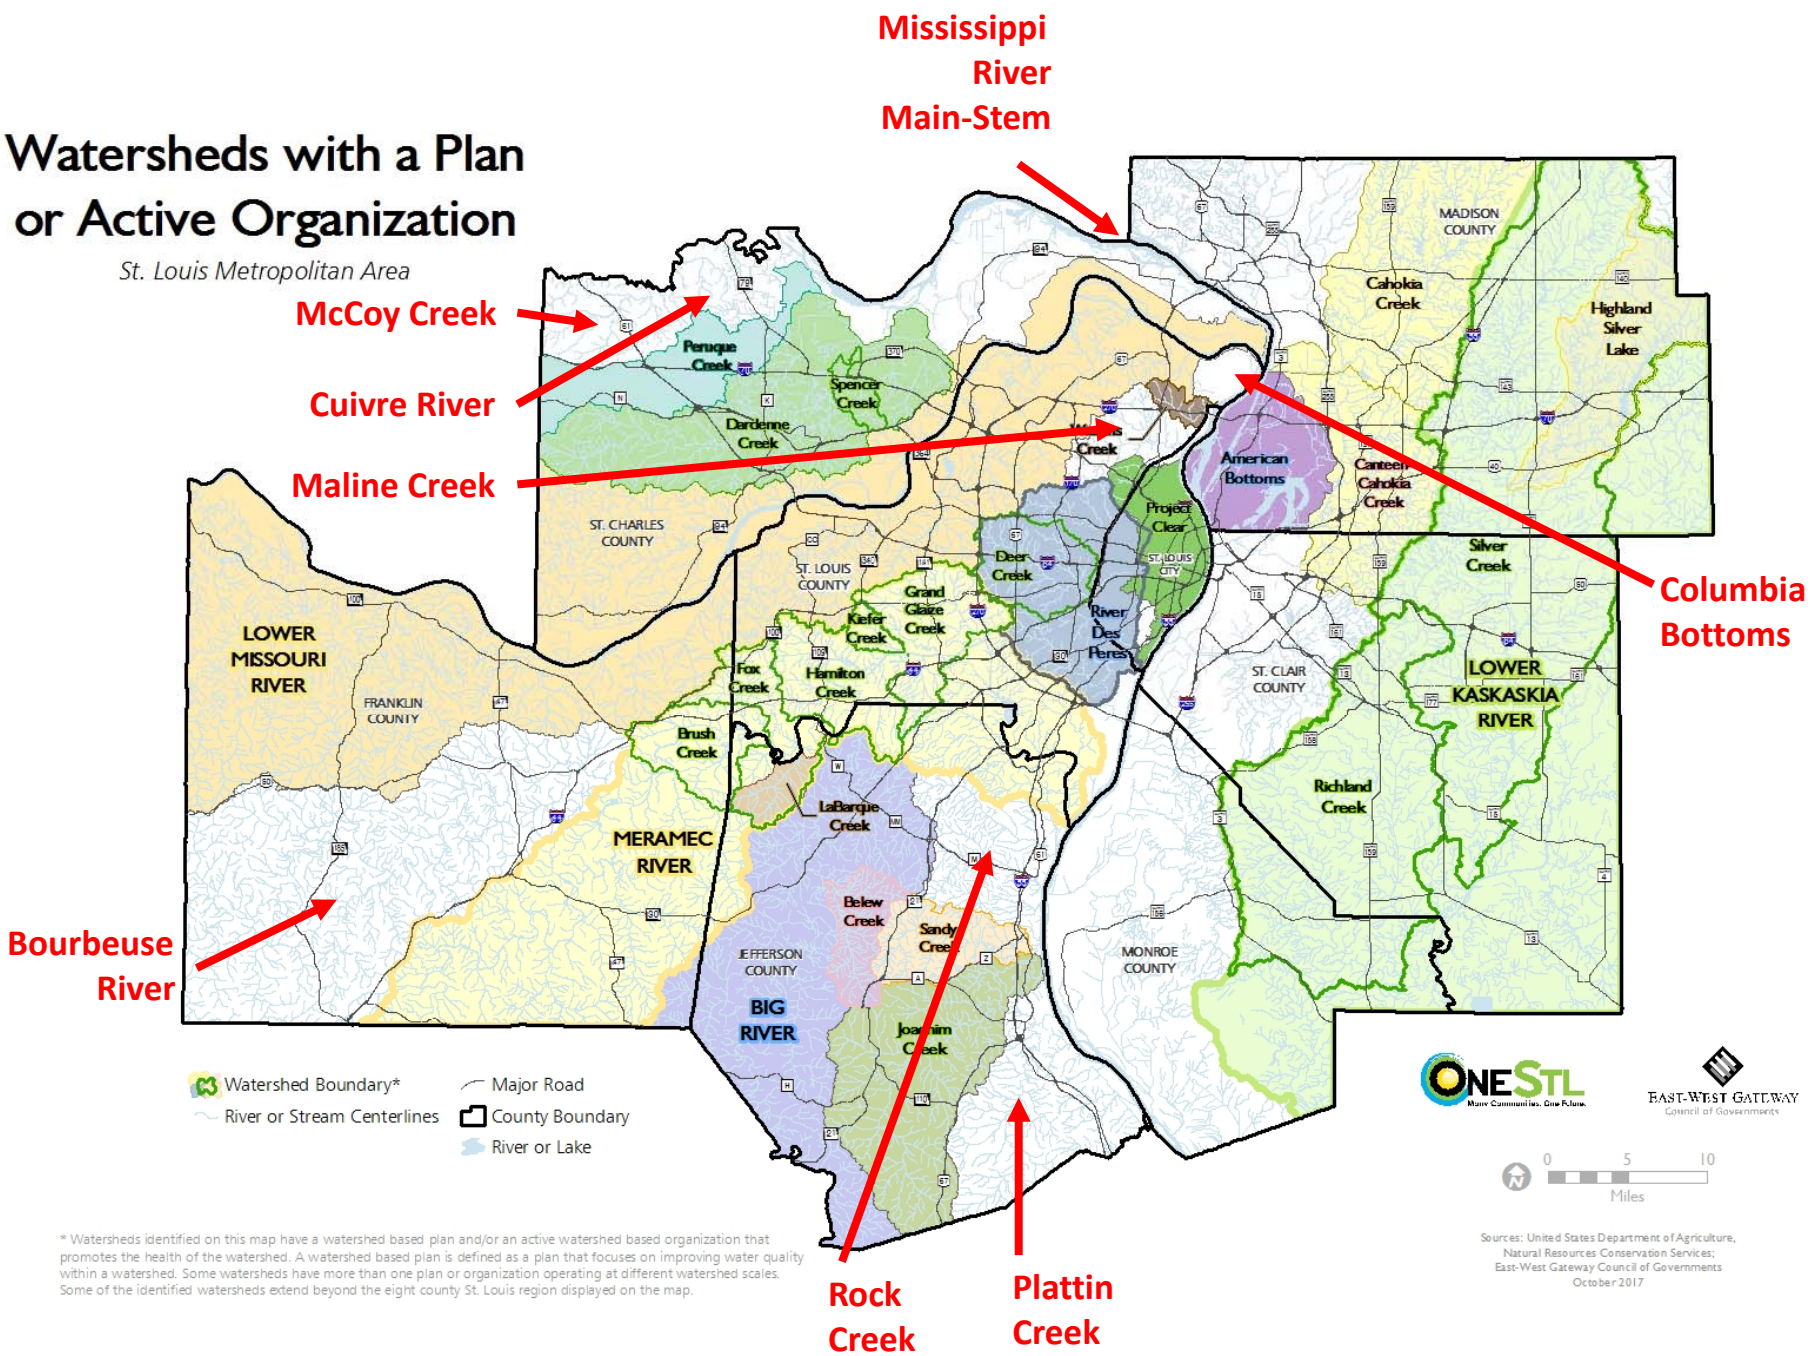


* Watersheds identified on this map have a watershed based plan and/or an active watershed based organization that promotes the health of the watershed. A watershed based plan is defined as a plan that focuses on improving water quality within a watershed. Some watersheds have more than one plan or organization operating at different watershed scales. Some of the identified watersheds extend beyond the eight county St. Louis region displayed on the map.

Sources: United States Department of Agriculture, Natural Resources Conservation Services; East-West Gateway Council of Governments
October 2017

Watersheds with a Plan or Active Organization

St. Louis Metropolitan Area

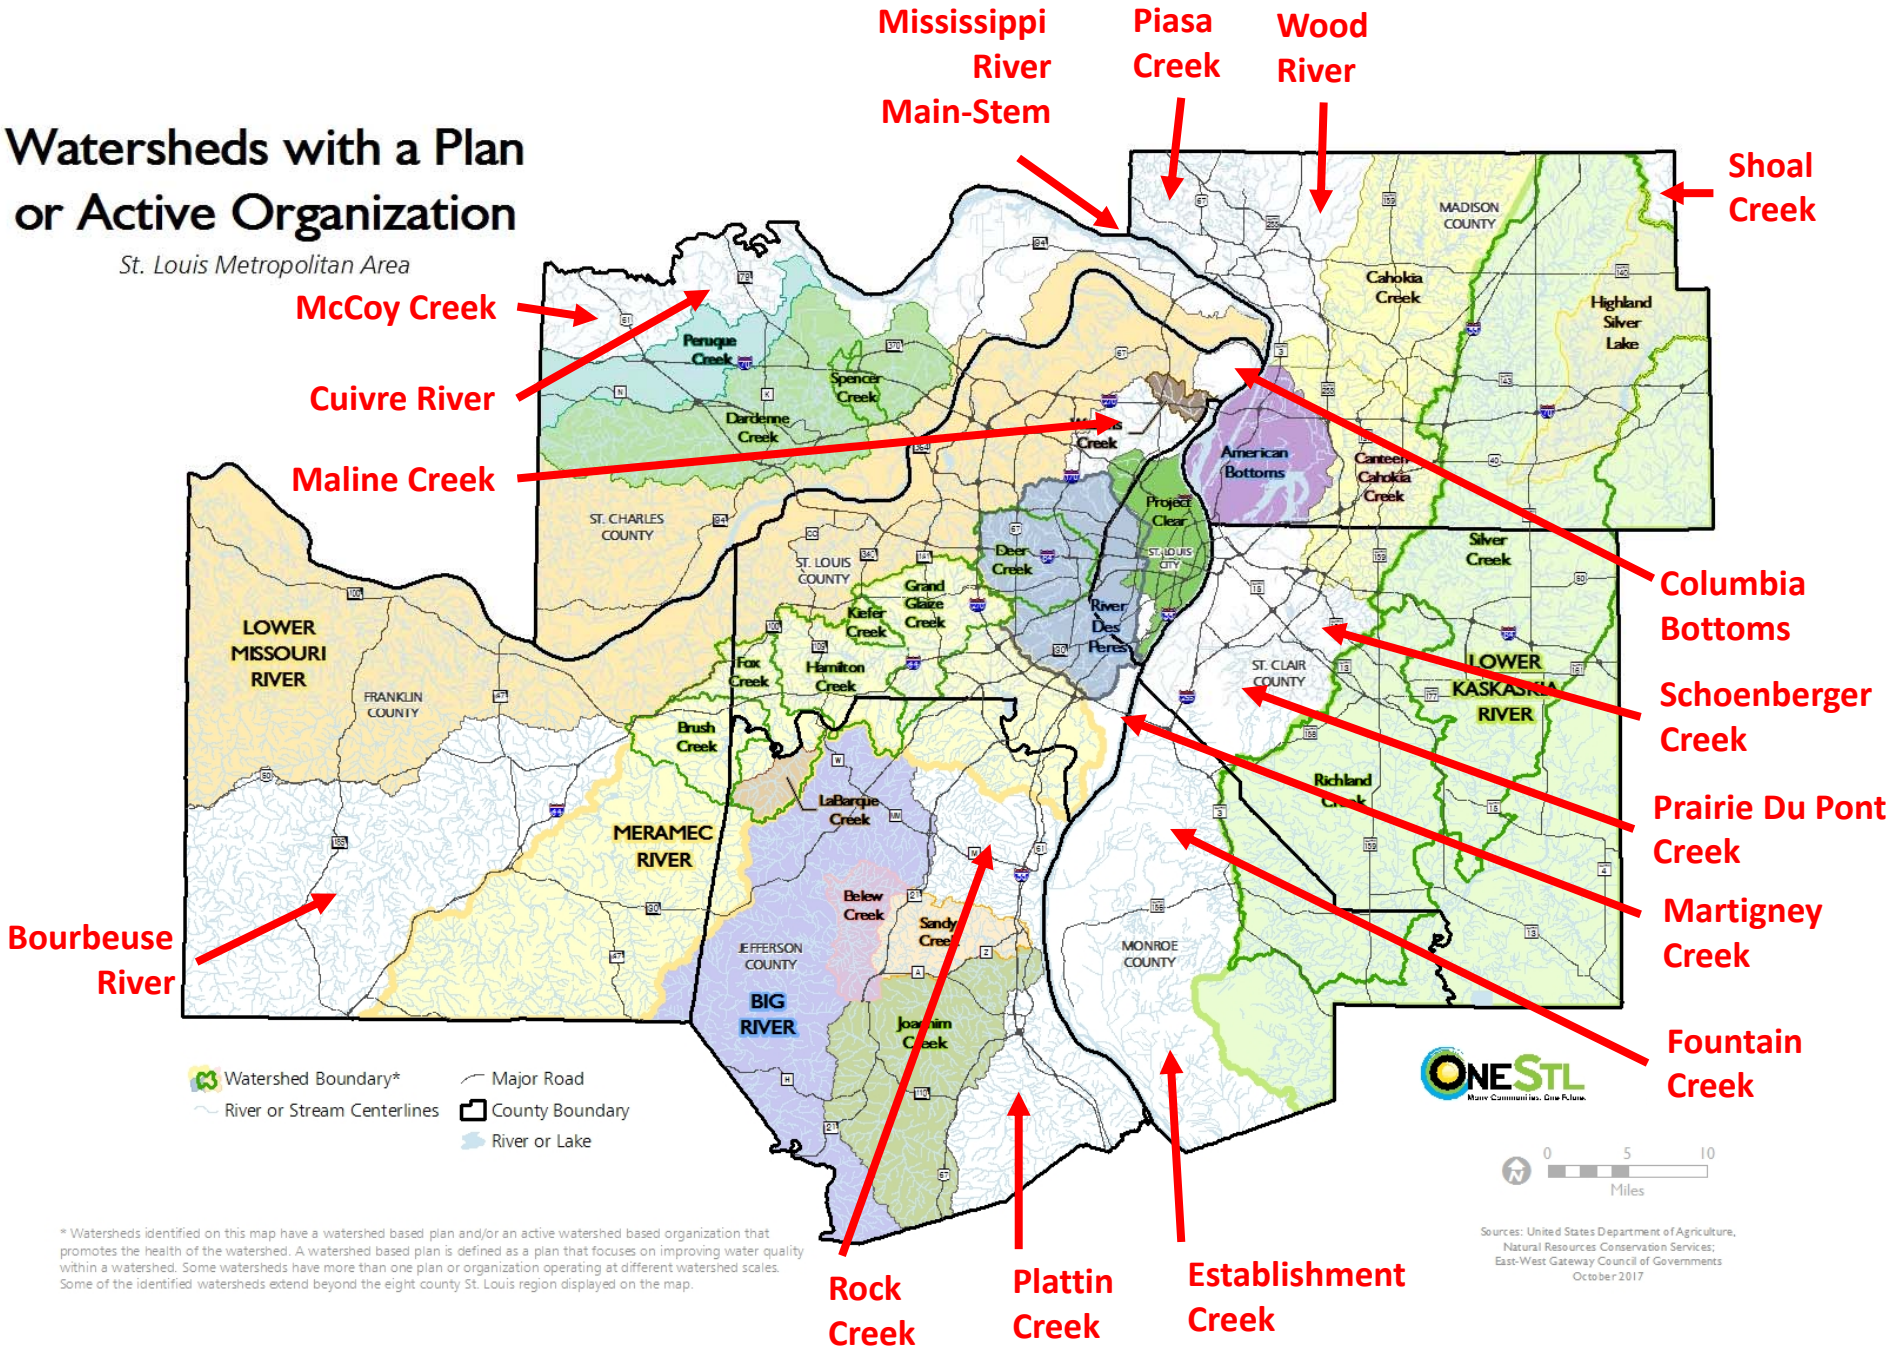


* Watersheds identified on this map have a watershed based plan and/or an active watershed based organization that promotes the health of the watershed. A watershed based plan is defined as a plan that focuses on improving water quality within a watershed. Some watersheds have more than one plan or organization operating at different watershed scales. Some of the identified watersheds extend beyond the eight county St. Louis region displayed on the map.

Sources: United States Department of Agriculture, Natural Resources Conservation Services; East-West Gateway Council of Governments
October 2017

Watersheds with a Plan or Active Organization

St. Louis Metropolitan Area



* Watersheds identified on this map have a watershed based plan and/or an active watershed based organization that promotes the health of the watershed. A watershed based plan is defined as a plan that focuses on improving water quality within a watershed. Some watersheds have more than one plan or organization operating at different watershed scales. Some of the identified watersheds extend beyond the eight county St. Louis region displayed on the map.

Sources: United States Department of Agriculture, Natural Resources Conservation Services; East-West Gateway Council of Governments
October 2017