This map shows the net change in number of low-income individuals within the East-West Gateway region. Low-income individuals are individuals living in a household below poverty threshold. Poverty threshold for a household size of four in 2010 was $22,314; and 2018 was $25,701.