Appendix 3: Title VI Complaint Procedures

East-West Gateway Council of Governments (EWG) has implemented the Title VI Complaint Procedures described in this document. These procedures outline the process by which a person can file a written complaint if the person believes that he / she has been excluded from or denied the benefits of or subjected to discrimination by EWG in relation to any program or activity administered by EWG or its subrecipients, consultants, or contractors. EWG's complaint procedure applies to matters related to Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VI) including the regulations / rules that govern providing meaningful access to limited English proficient (LEP) persons.

These procedures do not deny the rights of the complainant to file formal complaints with other state or federal agencies, or to seek private counsel for complaints alleging discrimination. These procedures are part of an administrative process that does not provide remedies that include punitive damages or compensatory remuneration for the complainant. EWG will make every effort to obtain early resolution of complaints. At any stage of the process, the option of informal mediation meeting(s) between the affected parties and EWG's Title VI Coordinator may be used for resolution. The Title VI Coordinator will make every effort to pursue a timely resolution of the complaint. During the initial interviews with the complainant and the respondent, if applicable, the Title VI Coordinator will request information regarding the specific relief requested and settlement opportunities.

In addition to EWG's complaint procedures, complainants have the right to complain directly to the appropriate federal agency. Complainants have 180 calendar days after the date the alleged discrimination occurred to file a complaint with the appropriate federal agency. This process is described in more detail in Part 7.
